Alsen Portland Cement

Is the strongest and most serviceable cement made and will permit the admixture of a larger amount of sand or gravel, with less loss of strength, than any other brand. It is therefore the most economical. ALSEN has NO EQUAL in COLOR, FINENESS, and SAND CARRYING CAPACITY. IT WEIGHS LESS PER BUSHEL, (measuring about 100 PER CENT. MORE CEMENT TO A BARREL than other brands, which very materially REDUCES its cost as compared with other cements) it is therefore an ECONOMICAL cement to use and SPECIALLY ADAPTED FOR FINE CONCRETE WORK.

CAPACITY AND SALES.—The output of the "ALSEN" factories is, at the present time, larger than that of any manufacturer of Portland Cement in Europe.

The yearly sales of Alsen's Portland Cement in the United States is greater than that of any other brand. The following test, made in actual work by Col. D. C. Houston, Corps of Engineers, U. S. A., at the sea wall around Governor's Island, New York Harbor, has never been equaled by any other cement. It is as follows:

TENSILE STRENGTH PER SQUARE INCH. One day, 314 pounds; Seven Days, 600 pounds; Thirty Days, 818 pounds. For Sidewalks it gives the best color and the most durable wearing surface. FOR SATURDAY SADNESS

BY EUGENES.

It is to be hoped skyscraper architecture will never go so far in Honolulu as to blight out the ocean view from the mountains back of town.

A scenic railway to the summit of Punchbowl would fit well into the approaching era of electric cars and automobiles in Honolulu. The dedication of the top land for a park would be a necessary adjunct of the improvement.

A schoolboy answering a question said the chief product of Mexico was fifty-cent dollars. W. J. Bryan, Adlai Stevenson and John H. Wise are trying to add the same commodity to the list of United States products.

A contemporary writer asks if trees think. An affirmative answer would indicate the origin of all the wooden-headed people we meet.

If the towns can get along without governments of their own, why can't the whole country as well? That is just what some of the opponents of municipal institutions wanted. They openly advocated placing the Hawaiian Islands in commission like the District of Columbia. They missed the game there, as they are going to do in their present campaign.

Lawyers can give big odds to newspaper men in showing how to avoid excess of fraternal amiability.

"What's the shape of the Capital grounds now?" This is a nice test question for a High School examination in geometry.

There is no sense in objecting to the largeness of the salary voted the sanitary plumbing inspector. For a plumber to let go his clench on private individuals and accept public emolument at any limited figure must be a heroic sacrifice.

Imperialism is the main issue, as Delegate McClanahan says. The emperor of the Democracy having used his prerogative to force sixteen to one upon his subjects, the Imperial people at large will decide whether his absolutism is to go any farther.

"Capitol" square would be the appropriate name of what was originally called "Palace" square—if it has been determined to wipe historical features out of topical nomenclature. The attempt to name it "Union" square was unfortunate, as, besides being commonplace, there is another city square with a prescriptive right to that name.

NATURE'S WAY.

Mineral concoctions are dangerous.
Nature never designed them for healing man. From time immemorial, man's healer was purely vegetable; and from that time to this, nature's unfailing remedy for rheumatism, and kindred diseases, was the same as that found in Kikapoo Indian Oil. It is nature's remedy, and acts as kindly as nature. It drives away pain, kills the dread rheumatism and restores the weakened tissue. It is made the same as the Indians made it centuries ago, out of roots, barks, herbs, gums, leaves, gathered from nature's unerring laboratory. Its record for cures is unparalleled. Before civilized man had heard of it, it kept the natives in perfect health. And since civilized man has known it, the category of cures has become voluminous.
No other medicine has made such cures, because Kikapoo Indian Oil is nature's remedy, and nature stands back of it. Your druggist has it, or can get it. Insist on getting the genuine Kikapoo Indian Oil. Hobron
